A few 10 and 20-acre tracts south of Auburn only 2 miles, and 3½ miles from Newcastle; they are located upon a choice tract of land; has a southern slope, and for citrus fruit the location cannot be surpassed; the land adjoining is being set out in trees and vines, being part of the same tract, having been purchased of us last spring, making quite a colony, which adds materially to the value of these tracts offered; we have not increased the prices over those sold last year, although we consider their value has been increased one-third by the improving of the adjoining lands; they are not only choice fruit lands, but will pay well to hold as an investment. Terms, $15 to $35 per acre; one-third cash; deferred payments at a low rate of interest.

There is Nothing Surprising

IN THE FACT THAT BENSON'S CAPCINE Plasters are widely imitated; that cheap and worthless plasters, with names of similar sound, and similar appearance in type, are freely offered for sale. Articles of great and original merit always have to compete with trashy imitations. But as they become known they die out through deserved neglect. Meanwhile we warn the public against the so-called "Capsicum," "Capsicin," "Capucin" and "Capsicine" plasters, whether "Benton's," "Burton's," or otherwise. They have no medicinal or curative virtues whatever, and are made to sell on the reputation of Benson's. When purchasing ask for Benson's; deal with respectable druggists only, and you cannot be deceived. The genuine has the "Three Seals" trademark on the cloth, and the word "Capcine" cut in the center. d7-6mMWF&w6m

Railroad War Precipitated.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 18th.—The dissolution of the Transcontinental Association, at whose meeting in New York it was found impossible to come to any agreement upon a plan for pooling business, has precipitated a railroad war. The first orders received at the main ticket office of the Central Pacific Railroad this morning made quite a savage cut in rates, as can be seen by comparing those given with those that ruled yesterday. The old rates were, for first-class limited tickets to New York, $113 25, and to Boston, $115 25. The rates given at the main office of the Central Pacific this morning are as follows:

EASTERN POINT.	Unlimited.	Limited.	Third Class
Council Bluffs, Pacific Junction, Kansas City, Buffalo	$60 00	$50 00	$25 00
Pittsburg	86 05	75 75	48 05
Philadelphia	84 65	74 05	48 50
Boston via Albany	95 25	79 50	50 75
Boston via New York	96 70	81 50	53 50
New York	101 60	85 25	53 50
Baltimore, Washington, Chicago	95 30	79 50	51 50
St. Louis	92 90	77 75	49 50
	72 50	62 50	37 50
	67 50	57 50	32 50

The above figures show a reduction from $90 to $60 to Omaha, first-class unlimited, and one from $84 to $50 for first-class limited tickets, a reduction of $30 and $34 respectively. The limited tickets formerly gave two or three days' grace, during which the passenger could stop over; but the limited tickets now sold enforce continuous passage.

The above figures do not give the lowest rates at which tickets can be obtained, as the prices include the commissions which are allowed the passenger by the agents of Eastern lines over which he passes. This commission amounts to $5 to Chicago and $8 to New York, which makes a limited ticket to Chicago $57 50 and to New York $71 50.

The Anti-Chinese Crusade.

MARYSVILLE, February 18th.—February 6th the Anti-Chinese Club at Nicolaus, Sutter county, notified the Chinese of the locality, including the employes on five hop ranches, that they must leave within ten days. No action was taken until this morning at 3 o'clock, when masked men visited the several ranches, and escorted forty-six Chinamen to the barge of the steamer Knight, lying at the wharf loading wheat. Captain Hunter, of the Knight, telegraphed to the headquarters of the steamer company here, and was instructed to put the Chinese off at Nicolaus, if possible; if not, at the next landing below. The steamer sailed at noon with the Chinamen, the Captain deeming it advisable not to leave them there. One of the China bosses came to the county seat to get official protection, and Under Sheriff Hewitt was sent to the scene, with instructions to give all protection.

SIERRAVILLE, February 18th.—A rousing anti-Chinese meeting was held here last night. Enthusiastic speeches were made by Hon. George Wood, Hon. H. K. Turner, H. A. Mason, Messrs. Kelly, Jones and others. A committee was appointed to circulate the usual pledge. Everybody appears willing to sign, and the Chinese here will soon have to go.

SANTA CRUZ, February 18th.—All of the Chinese employed at J. P. Pierce's sawmill have been discharged. W. H. Dougherty, who owns one of the largest sawmills in the State, says he will discharge all of the Chinese in his employ in two weeks, as his contract with them will expire then, and he will hire white men in their places, even if he has to pay them twice the wages he paid the Chinese.

SAN JOSE, February 18th—At a meeting of the Anti-Coolie League, to-night, it was decided to notify the State Central Committee to boycott the San Jose Fruit Packing Company, because that corporation had employed Chinese tinners.

Fatal Affray in Plumas County.

GREENVILLE, February 18th.—The son of Dr. L. F. Cate, County Treasurer of Plumas county, shot and killed Dan Folsom in Quincy Tuesday evening. Folsom had threatened the elder Cate's life, and meeting him drew his pistol and fired twice, but missed his aim. Young Cate then fired at Folsom and killed him. About two weeks ago Dan Folsom's wife left him and went to San Francisco. Harmony had not existed between the couple for some months. Before she left, her husband pressed her for her reason for leaving him and their three children. She confessed to criminal relations with Dr. Cate, County Treasurer, claiming that he is the father of a child soon to be born. The confession was reduced to writing and sworn to. Cate was at Sacramento, settling with the State, when this occurred. Folsom was enraged and evidently intended to attack Cate on his return. Friends informed the latter before he reached Quincy, and kept him out of the way for a couple of days. Dr. Cate says the woman's statement is false. Cate's son, a young dentist, has been with him since his father returned from Sacramento. Folsom was in Quincy yesterday. Cate and son were coming out of the Court-house yard at noon, when Folsom started toward them and commenced firing at the Treasurer. The son fired in return, and seven or eight shots were exchanged. One pierced Folsom's jugular vein, causing death in a few minutes. Neither of the Cates was hit. The Treasurer has been a much respected citizen of the county for thirty years. Folsom's reputation was good. He was a Knight Templar. The jury returned a verdict of justifiable homicide, and the Cates were discharged from custody.

Another Boy Sent to San Quentin.

NEVADA, February 18th.—George Rogers, aged 17, was to-day sentenced in the Superior Court to seven years' imprisonment in San Quentin. He robbed a store at Town Talk, near this city, a few months since. When the trial came on he pleaded guilty, and judgment was suspended that he might be placed for a while in the keeping of the Boys and Girls' Aid Society of San Francisco. He showed no intention of reforming, and was returned to jail a short time ago.

The Prewett Murder Case.

HOLLISTER, February 18th.—It is impossible so far to secure a jury in the case of J. T. Prewett, charged with the murder of Dr. Powers, and the witnesses have been excused until next Wednesday, when it is hoped the panel may be completed.

Temperance Revival.

SAN BUENAVENTURA, February 18th.—Quite a temperance revival is in progress in this county. W. B. Wadman, Grand Patriarch, and Dr. Stephen Bowers, editor of the Free Press, have organized four Divisions of the Sons of Temperance in this count and one at Goleta, Santa Barbara county. Some have as high as fifty members. Much interest is manifested.

Bail Bond Increased.

SANTA BARBARA, February 18th.—Drew Crooks was brought into Court yesterday on the filing of an amended complaint, and the bond increased from $10,000 to $20,000. The examination has been fixed for February 26th.

Fraternal Gathering of Pythian Knights.

OROVILLE, February 18th.—The Lodges of Knights of Pythias of this place, Nelson and Chico, with some visiting members of Red Bluff and other Lodges, have a fraternal gathering here this evening. The Uniform Rank of Chico are now giving a splendid exhibition drill on our streets, which is warmly applauded by the large crowds lining the sidewalks and balconies.

Agricultural Hall in Marysville.

MARYSVILLE, February 18th.—Marysville will soon to be able to boast of a fine Agricultural Hall, which is to be immediately built. A company has been incorporated, with a capital stock of $6,000, all subscribed. The building will be in dimensions 160 by 72 feet.

Delayed Train.

TEHACHAPI, February 18th.—Passenger train No. 20, bound north, is six hours late. The cause is that a special train bound north jumped the track near Langs.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

The Riot Cases.

SEATTLE, February 18th.—The examination of persons arrested in connection with the riot began here to-day before United States Commissioner Smith. The entire day was occupied in hearing three witnesses as to the proceedings on the day when the Chinese were evicted. The hearing was then adjourned until to-morrow.

UTAH.

Cannon's Condition—Unlawful Cohabitation Cases.

SALT LAKE, February 18th.—George Q. Cannon is laid up from his bruises in his break for liberty from a running train, but the doctors say he is not badly hurt, and will probably be about again within a week.

Henry Dinwoodey yesterday had United States Attorney Dickson ask for a suspension of sentence on his conviction for unlawful cohabitation, and he would enter a plea of guilty, and pledge his obedience to the law. Later in the day the Church zealots, by threats to boycott his business, forced him to recant, and say that he had not authorized the pledge of adherence to the law. He was cited to appear in Court this morning, and the time of his case was ordered for to-morrow.

To-day O. F. Due pleaded guilty to unlawful cohabitation, and was acquitted of polygamy.

Joseph Sisom, on pledging obedience to the law, was fined $200 for unlawful cohabitation.

NEW MEXICO.

Herders Killed by Apaches.

SANTA FE, February 18th.—Eight sheep-herders on the ranch of Solomon Luna, in Valencia county, New Mexico, near the Arizona line, had a fight with Apaches, and the herders were killed. The Luna brothers with a force of mounted men, have gone to the scene of the fight.

STATE SCHOOL TEXT-BOOKS.

Statements Refuted Concerning Their Preparation and Publication.

A lengthy article appeared yesterday in the San Francisco Chronicle, intended to cast odium upon the issuance by the State of public school text-books, for which the people so nearly unanimously voted when the constitutional amendment upon the subject was adopted. The papers which "stood in" with the school-book publishers' ring at that time, and were so badly "sat down upon," can only find comfort now in hoping for a failure of the new method, and attacking those who are officially charged with work of preparing and publishing the books.

The RECORD-UNION strongly supported the Constitutional amendment, as also urged legislation to faithfully carry its provisions into effect, and will be prompt to expose any conduct of officials calculated to impair the success of the plan, or needless delays in providing the books for public use. But the public will need to view with caution and suspicion the post mortem reflections of papers which lost their cause for the school book publishers' ring when the matter was finally submitted to a vote of the people. A representative of the RECORD-UNION, after reading the article above referred to, sought an interview with the Governor, who is President of the State Board of Education, which is charged with preparing and publishing the State text-books, and also upon State Superintendent Wetzker, Secretary of the Board, and Mr. Raymond, editor of the State text-book series. None of these gentlemen, however, desired to enter into a discussion of the statements made, with a view to having their remarks published. Colonel Ayers, State Printer, is not in the city, and hence was not seen. The following facts, which were gleaned from conversation had, will be of interest to the public:

1. In reply to the statement that the State Board has decided to publish certain books—eight in number—not authorized by the Legislature, the strongest and only thing to be said is that it is wholly and absolutely untrue in every particular. Prior to the meeting of the Legislature in January, 1885, the Board discussed a scheme of publication which embraced certain books not provided for in the subsequent Act of the Legislature, since which the Board has addressed itself to the preparation of such books only as are named in the Act.

2. The statement that a member of the Board had declined to report information received by him on the subject of providing a geography, except upon certain conditions, is also denied, and met by the counter stat

THE ENCAMPMENT.

The Grand Army Encampment now being held in this city is a convention of more than ordinary importance. The body has to grapple with the preliminaries of receiving and entertaining the National Encampment. It ought to put at the head of that work its very best and most experienced workers. It is essential that there be no bungling next August. The Grand Army in California embraces in its membership some of the most efficient business men, and a large number of those who know how to entertain. These should be preferred to the inexperienced always. The character and success of the reception next August will wholly depend upon wise administration of the funds raised and to be raised for the purpose. Every dollar that is expended to present California to our guests in its truth, and to give them practical information regarding our resources and capabilities, will be wisely invested. There ought to be no waste of funds in mere show decoration and parade. The visitors will care far more to see as much as they can of the State, than have their eyesight temporarily gratified with decorative gaudiness. Just so much of the funds as can be set aside for the purpose should be used to aid in the transport of the delegates into various sections of the State. These men and those to accompany them are of the class who care for material and practical things and will greatly more appreciate the hospitality that opens all the doors of the State, than that which wines and dines them to surfeit in a single apartment. They will not see California in San Francisco alone. The people of that city are now alive to the importance of sending guests into the rural regions. If we are to have 30,000 or 40,000 visitors in August next, at least half of them should be given opportunity to examine our producing sections, on such liberal terms of transportation as will constitute a pressing invitation. This can be done, and still all due form and ceremony and pomp of reception provided for. It is probable that the interior counties would contribute to the entertainment fund liberally, if called upon, with the end in view indicated and with the assurance that the whole time of the visit will not be consumed for set observances in the metropolis.

SCANT DRESSING AGAIN.

The San Francisco Spirit of the Times takes us to task for saying that when women of society dress immodestly they do so by consent of and to please men, and that whatever there is of complaint about scanty dressing is chargeable to the men of the day. The Times insists that this is unjust judgment of the male sex. But, though a column and a half is devoted to vigorous protest and iteration of this conclusion, the only thing advanced that may be called a reason in support, is the statement that all men know that when a woman is immodest in dress, those who most decidedly express disapproval are men, and that as a rule men do not approve scant dressing by women. We are willing to concede this to be fact. But it is also fact that this condemnation and virtuous indignation is manifest mainly when ladies of somewhat advanced years are more lavish in display of the person than is proper. Over such exhibitions men are not infrequently very indignant; but, strange to say, they confine the expressions of their disfavor chiefly to rather subdued comment among themselves. It is only at rare intervals that men stand out boldly and protest, as does Dr. Morgan Dix. Let us be entirely honest with those of our sex. They know perfectly well that scant dressing is indulged in only so far as society tolerates it, and for the codes of society man is as much responsible as woman. The attempt to throw the whole burden of accountability for society's misdoings upon the weaker sex is simply cowardly. If it be true that men do not favor the scant dressing condemned by the Churchman and the Times with such vigor, it is a humiliating confession to make that they submit to it. Man writes the code of virtue, and in wife, daughter, mother and sister maintains its integrity, even at the mouth of the pistol and the sacrifice of life. Shall he then confess his inability to write the code of decency to which women of fashion must conform? Certainly not. If the writer in the last named journal was so deeply shocked, and his sensibilities so wounded by the exposure of person he witnessed at "a state ball in Washington," it must have occurred to him that the state ball was held by the command or request of a man, and that, too, probably, one whose simply expressed desire would have become the law of the place for both men and women, as regards dress. And so it is on all occasions when woman figures as fashion's model.

AND now that Chinese labor is to be displaced, let such laboring men as have been improvident, and wasteful of their substance in whisky-drinking, reform their ways and prove their ability and right to stand side by side with the sober, industrious, toiling, saving mechanics and workers of the land, who dignify labor and add honor and strength to the communities of the State. Let the people hereafter listen in vain for the old complaint, that white laborers in California, on the farm and in the vineyard and orchard, are unreliable, and turn up drunk at the very time when most needed. It is the complaint now, and there is nothing gained by concealing it. There is no wisdom in covering the fact that the labor-employing class of the rural districts in this State, in a great many cases, have no confidence in the laborers, and have reason for their want of it. The unemployed who are worthy of employment have all along been heavily handicapped by the drones that seek work only to gratify present need or a morbid appetite for drink, and with no intention of deserving the repose of confidence. The Chinese are to be prevented coming into the country hereafter—not in the interest of the intemperate and shiftless and unskillful, but in the interest of the workmen who are sober, industrious, reliable, and who qualify themselves by industry, application and desire to do whatever they undertake. For the shiftless class there will be less room in California than there is now for the Chinese, and the boycott of industry and steadfastness will run it out—starve it out of the State. In the destiny opening before California—in the tilling of her soil, the gathering of her products, the development of her resources, the settlement of her vacant places—the lazy tramp and the whisky-guzzling beggar for work will not be wanted. They will be brushed aside, along with the Chinese and other undesirable elements. This State demands a steady, intelligent, sober, reliable, home-building class of workers, and it will have them. They are coming already, and it will be but a short time before they will reform our whole labor system, and, while supplanting the Chinese, will at the same time remove from us forever the odium of the charge repeated in the voice of seven out of ten of the rural employers of the land: "California white labor is unreliable."

THE Alta California, the remarks of which are elsewhere published, is of the same mind with the RECORD-UNION, when it declares that while the anti-Chinese agitation must not be allowed to slacken, or come to judgment as but a hectic flush of excitement in an election year, we must not do the State grievous injury by demanding those sudden changes in the industrial system that will prostrate any industry or production. The change cannot be accomplished "in a day nor a year, but it must be done," it declares. Such industries as clearly cannot at once change from the old to the new methods, must be given time to work the substitution of white for Chinese labor.

MR. MORRISON's new tariff bill pleases no one. It cuts $10,000,000 of revenue off in a lump in its sugar schedule. It is not free trade enough for the free traders, and much too free for the protectionists. It is neither fish nor flesh, and is receiving kicks and cuffs from all quarters. It appears to excite little interest in Washington, because of the belief there that there will be no tariff legislation at this session of Congress.

SAN FRANCISCO ITEMS.

Timothy Whalen, who on last Sunday night killed his father and then attempted suicide, is improving, and no danger is apprehended from the wounds he inflicted upon himself.

Captain W. H. Goodell, of the Santa Clara, convicted of beating one sailor and assaulting with a deadly weapon another, has been sentenced in the United States District Court, by Judge Sabin, to four months in San Quentin, at hard labor, and to pay a fine of $300.

Detectives Cox and Glennon found a white babe in a back room on the upper floor of the Chinese rookery at 639 Jackson street Wednesday afternoon and rescued it from Ah Cum, its foster mother. The babe is evidently of German extraction and is between 3 and 4 years old.

It is reported at the Southern Pacific offices that a special Chicago-bound train of twenty-six cars loaded with oranges reached Ogden from Los Angeles Wednesday, via the Central Pacific route, in the excellent time of sixty hours, and would make the run from Ogden to Omaha in forty-five hours. Even over the heavy mountain grades the time made shows an average speed of twenty miles an hour. From Truckee to Ogden the average speed was twenty-five miles.

Charles Crocker has sent word to his sons to place $33,000 in the bank to the credit of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society. With $11,000 donated by Senator Fair, the society purchased two 50-vara lots near Golden Gate Park, but as the money to erect the home was not forthcoming, the attention of Charles Crocker was called to the matter, and he asked to have the plans of a suitable building forwarded to him at New York, which was done. The plans provided for a building to cost $30,000, which Mr. Crocker cheerfully donated, adding $3,000 for incidental expenses.

THE ENCAMPMENT.

IMMENSE GATHERING OF GRAND ARMY VETERANS.

Synopsis of the First Day's Proceedings—Election of Commander—Woman's Relief Corps.

Yesterday witnessed the first day of the Nineteenth Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of California. The sessions are being held at Odd Fellows' Temple, and a very large number of delegates from all parts of the State and the portion of the coast included in this Department are present. The halls are full of the honored veterans, and a finer looking body of men never graced the capital city. This is a noticeable feature of the gathering, and one which is generally remarked. Every train arriving here yesterday brought additional delegations, and still more will arrive during to-day.

The first regular session of the Encampment was held in the afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock. Department Commander R. H. Warfield delivered an address of welcome, and made a brief statement of the year's work. He said the Department had prospered, and now numbers fifty-two Posts and 3,500 comrades. No Post had surrendered its charter and none had been dropped nor suspended. He spoke of the coming event of the National Encampment, at San Francisco, and said it would be the grandest gathering of Union soldiers since the review near Washington at the close of the war. The last Encampment reduced the per capita tax 20 per cent., and the department has been able to run on the income realized the more easily this year on account of the increase in profit from the sale of supplies. For the coming administration, and in view of the Encampment, it is suggested as wise to increase the per capita to the old rate, viz: 50 cents instead of 40 cents, payable 15 cents per capita the first and second quarters, and 10 cents per capita the third and fourth quarters. The Woman's Relief Corps has been fraternally encouraged upon every appropriate occasion by the Department Commander and staff, and comrades throughout the department are beginning to acknowledge their valuable services, and to desire their womanly and sisterly co-operation. The Veterans' Home has 150 inmates. More are seeking admission, but the funds of the Association are insufficient to provide for them, and there is no hope of permanent and adequate support for the many worthy veterans on this coast who need help of this kind, save in the bountiful care of the Federal Government. There are fully 30,000 ex-soldiers west of the Rocky mountains, of whom about 500 are in need of this aid. As age comes on and immigrants arrive, the number will increase. They are not natives of the Pacific States. They come from all the older States, and as they were soldiers and sailors of the Union army and navy, it is eminently proper that the treasury of the Union should provide for them. The Home's receipts for the year were $12,896 71, and the disbursements $13,455 35, showing an apparent deficit of $558 64. To offset this overdraft there is due from the State for the months of October, November and December, 1885, the sum of $3,750 06. There are bills unpaid amounting to $1,364 98, which added to the $558 64 makes $1,923 62. This deducted from the $3,750 leaves $1,826 38 to the credit of the Home. There are no other debts, except a tax bill of $424, which it is understood that the county of Napa will see is paid.

The report of the Assistant Adjutant-General, W. R. Smedberg, was submitted, which shows a gain of 1,842 in membership during the past year. The losses by death, discharge, etc., 995—net gain, 847.

Assistant Quartermaster-General R. H. Orton's report shows total receipts for the year from all sources, $4,417 14; total disbursements, $3,772 38; balance on hand, $644 76. The amount contributed from the various Posts for the Grant Monument fund is to date $341. The amount set apart by the Encampment for the relief fund was $135 02; expended, $50; balance on hand, $85 02.

The report of the Mustering Officer, L. F. Finigan, shows the work of the past year to have been: Whole number of Posts mustered, 27, located as follows: In California, 22; Nevada, 2; Arizona Territory, 3. Total charter membership, 413; highest number mustered in one Post, 31; lowest number mustered in one Post, 10; average number charter members to Posts, 15¼. It will be seen from the above report that there have been more Posts mustered during the past year than during any previous year since the organization of this Department.

The report of the Committee on Management recites the full history by which an appropriation of $25,000 was secured from the last Legislature to induce the National Convention to meet in California in 1886. It recites the organization of the Committee of Management to prepare for the assembling of the National Encampment. It consists of Chairman Samuel W. Backus, J. W. Staples, Stuart Taylor, C. Mason Kinne, A. T. Eggleston, Edward S. Salomon, D. M. Cashin, W. O. Gould, John Lynch, T. K. Noble, J. M. Davis, H. T. Hobbert, Jerome Deasy, W. H. Holmes, R. E. Houghton, S. J. Corbett, R. H. Orton, Horace Wilson, C. W. Beach, G. H. Stevens, W. B. Hooper, J. T. Cutting, L. L. Dorr, Charles E. Wilson and W. H. Wharff.

The report gives a long list of sub committees appointed to aid in the work, 24 in all, with a membership of about 200. It recites also the steps taken to secure low transportation rates. It asks that $50,000 be raised to supplement the legislative fund. It concludes with a few details as to the place of meeting in San Francisco and the work before the committee.

The Inspector's report shows 67 Posts, with 3,816 members, in the Department of California—a gain of 1,007 members in a year. There are 9 Posts uniformed and equipped; 26 Posts own their muskets; nearly all Posts pay sick benefits; for charitable purposes in the past nine months there was disbursed $2,373 60, and there was in the relief fund of 38 Posts $2,671 51 September 30th.

The Judge Advocate's report is brief, and not of public importance. Only one appeal was referred to him. The records of three Courts-martial were referred to him in the year, for examination as to regularity.

The Chaplain's report relates wholly to matters regarding records of deaths, Memorial Day observances, and a social visit to the Veterans' Home.

The object of prime interest in connection with the Encampment, and upon which all interest centers, is the election of Commander. According to the rules, the election of officers should take place on the last day of the Encampment, but this is not always done. It is quite probable that the election of Commander will be reached to-day. The candidates are Stuart M. Taylor, W. R. Smedberg, W. H. L. Barnes and J. H. Barbour, of San Jose. Governor Stoneman is also very strongly talked of by a portion of the delegates. The center of the contest last evening was between Taylor and Smedberg, with so strong partisans and ranks for each that the prospect may be said to be in favor of some other candidate, or perhaps a dark horse. Gen. Barnes has some warm supporters, and his friends claim he is surely the growing man. The San Jose and Santa Cruz delegates are a unity for Barbour, and when they find he cannot get it, will sit by and watch to see who they prefer to have the honors, for the balance of power is conceded to rest with them. The strong probability is that they will, if Barbour fails to come to the front, finally turn their support to Governor Stoneman. The entire contest is a warm one, and is waged with almost as much zeal and determination as the veterans evinced in the field twenty odd years ago.

There are numerous candidates for the other positions to be filled, but the efforts for success in these is entirely lost to sight in the contest over the Commander.

NOTES.

The Grand Army delegates and those of the W. R. C. have been invited by Master Mechanic Stevens to visit the Central Pacific Railroad machine works; by Secretary of State Thompson to visit the Capitol; by State Librarian Wallis to visit the State Library from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. (special hours). From 9 to 5 to-day the Museum Association opens the E. B. Crocker Art Gallery to the delegates, the day being made "free" to them and their escorts. Tickets have been furnished the presiding officers, but if any delegates have failed to receive them, they will be admitted on application, the ticket being rather the form of compliment than an absolute essential. While at the Art Gallery the guests will be permitted to visit the School of Design rooms, the finest art school rooms, by the way, on the continent.

To-morrow night the local Posts give a banquet to the visitors at Armory Hall. It is understood that ex-Senator Booth will respond to the toast, "President of the United States."

THE WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS.

Take Care of the Children.

For children Brandreth's Pills are simply invaluable. One or two Pills taken every night for ten days will cure them of scarlet fever, diphtheria, whooping cough, colds, diarrhea or local pains. Brandreth's Pills are purely vegetable—contain no mercury, mineral or dangerous drug. They require no care in diet or exposure, and are perfectly safe for old or young, male or female. One or two at night, for a week, taken on an empty stomach, will cure the worst case of dyspepsia, liver complaint or rheumatism.

Recently, while sinking a well on the desert, south of the railroad, near Florence, A. T., there were found, eighty feet below the surface of the ground, fragments of Aztec pottery upon which were figures, resembling in design and outline the ornaments on the pottery of the Papagoes and Pimas of to-day.

SICK-HEADACHE.—Thousands who have suffered intensely with sick-headache say that Hood's Sarsaparilla has completely cured them. One gentleman thus relieved, writes: "Hood's Sarsaparilla is worth its weight in gold." Sold by all druggists. One hundred doses, $1.

An average of 2,100 persons monthly now arrive at San Diego by sea and rail, but the departures do not nearly equal that number.

AS AN article for the toilet, Ayer's Hair Vigor stands unrivaled. It cleanses the scalp and preserves it from scurf and dandruff, cures itching and humors, restores the hair, when faded or gray, to its original dark color, and promotes its growth.

THE WOODLAND HOMICIDE.

CONTINUATION OF TESTIMONY BEFORE JUDGE RUGGLES.

Further Evidence of Eye-witnesses—Objections Overruled—Exceptions Taken.

[SPECIAL BY TELEGRAPH TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

WOODLAND, February 18th.—The preliminary examination of Harlan and Barnes, charged with the murder of E. L. Craft on Sunday, February 7th, was resumed this morning at 10 o'clock. The Court-room was crowded with spectators.

The first witness called in continuation of the testimony for the prosecution was James J. Fiske. He said: I reside at the Byrns Hotel. Was present February 7th, at 2 P. M., when the shooting took place. Was standing at the north end of the office counter, facing the east, or toward the bootblack stand. Saw Craft and Prendergast on the bootblack stand, Craft in the north or corner chair. Noah Meyer was standing on my right. Heard some one open the door; looked around and saw Harlan enter, turn to the left suddenly and fire at Craft. Saw Craft rising from the chair when I started to go back of the counter. Heard other shots. Turned sideways. Saw Craft running by, thrusting his hand into his coat or back pocket. His hand came out of the pocket with a pistol in it. After Craft fell Harlan walked past me to where Craft had fallen. I was standing at the south end of the counter, by the hotel register, when Harlan stood over Craft. As he lay turned upon his back, motionless, Harlan stooped and shot him in the head. Saw no motion of Craft's body after he fell.

Noah Meyer testifid: Was present at the shooting, standing to the right of preceding witness. His testimony was a complete corroboration of that of Fiske. Saw Harlan the time the first shot was fired. Was four feet from Craft. The witness ran for the wash-room for personal safety. Heard four or five shots. Looked around. Saw Craft fall and Harlan walk up and shoot him in the head.

Sheriff Beamer, recalled, said that he had known defendants for many years, and he understood they were brothers-in-law.

William H. Soule said he was on Main street, opposite the Byrns hotel, at the time of the shooting. Am not acquainted with Harlan. Crossed the street after the shooting. Was standing on the sidewalk in front of the hotel when Harlan came out, walking rapidly, with a pistol in his hand. Harlan said, "If you get in my way I will shoot you, too." At that time did not see Barnes.

Counsel for prosecution recalled Under Sheriff Prendergast.

Counsel for defense objected, saying that Prendergast had testified and could not be recalled, as no foundation was laid for it.

The objection was overruled and the exception noted.

Witness said he was in the office when Mr. Harlan surrendered himself.

Counsel for the prosecution asked for the conversation witness had with Harlan.

Objected to and objection argued at length. Overruled.

Witness said: Mr. Harlan said to me that he "considered any man had a right to defend the honor of his family." I am not positive, but my recollection is that he stated that his daughter had been slandered and he thought he had a right to defend her.

Noon recess.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The examination was resumed at 1:45 P. M.

Peter Krellenberg testified that he was the Coroner of Yolo county. Was slightly acquainted with the deceased. Took charge of the body the day of the homicide; found it at the office of the Byrns Hotel. He described the position in which the body lay. The witness produced the overcoat worn by deceased at the time of death. The same was offered in evidence. Counsel on both sides examined the bullet-holes in the garment.

On cross-examination, he said the clothing, except the overcoat and shirts, were returned with the body to his parents. The shirts were covered with blood, and he burned them.

Counsel for defense objected to the overcoat being received in evidence, as being incompetent, so long as the other clothing worn by deceased at the time of the killing was inaccessible. The point was ably argued by counsel for prosecution, who claimed that the clothes found on the body of deceased were perforated with bullets at the point indicated by the physicians as the places where the wounds were received.

The Court overruled the objection and exceptions were taken.

Witness, continuing on direct examination, said he took the body from the Byrns Hotel to his office and had a post mortem examination held. The next he turned the body over to Mr. Craft, the father of deceased. On the right inside pocket was a red silk handkerchief, which was offered in evidence. The same objection and the same ruling.

Cross-examined—Produced the revolver which he found under Craft's right hand. The pistol was of a similar pattern to the one used by Harlan—a Smith & Wesson five-shooter, 28-caliber. One chamber was discharged, the hammer resting on an empty shell.

The pistol of deceased, also the bullet extracted from his head and the one taken from his back, were offered in evidence.

J. Audette testified that about fifteen minutes before the shooting Harlan and Barnes were standing in front of the Bank of Woodland. Mr. Sill, son-in-law of Harlan, came up and whispered something to them. Witness was standing a few feet distant, conversing with Mr. Stevens.

E. Williams testified that he knew Frank Barnes; that on the day after the homicide he heard him make a statement regarding the killing of Craft.

Witness was asked to detail the conversation.

Counsel for defense objected; first, because no foundation was laid for it; that Barnes was in no way connected with the killing, and no evidence of conspiracy had been elicited; secondly, that it was not made in the presence of defendant Harlan.

Mr. Highton made an argumentative, eloquent address in favor of the objection. He claimed that no evidence had been introduced to connect Frank Barnes with the homicide in the remotest degree. He should be discharged by the Court, and the latter should apologize to him for the arrest.

District Attorney Sprague responded with spirit. He said there was not a man within the sound of his voice who did not believe that Frank Barnes stood by, aided and abetted in the murder of Craft. He said the evidence showed that Barnes had followed Craft that day, and with drawn pistol followed up Harlan when the latter was firing the fatal shots. A man who aids and abets a murder is guilty of murder himself. If we have not proven a conspiracy, great God! can't we do it now? Are we to be prevented from proving that they both conspired to kill Craft? I don't want to persecute anyone, but desire a fair and impartial examination, and resent all the innuendos thrown out by counsel for the defense against myself and associate counsel.

Counsel Clark, of the prosecution, followed the District Attorney, reviewing the testimony, claiming that the objection of the defense had no force. The facts and circumstances surrounding the death of Craft directly connected Barnes with the murder. Harlan and Barnes were co-defendants. No conspiracy was claimed.

Mr. Highton, in reply, read the complaint, in which Harlan and Barnes are jointely accused of the crime of murder. The State had to prove two facts, the commission of the crime and the connection of the defendants in its commission. No evidence showed that Barnes had anything to do with the murder. They do not, nor cannot, pretend to say that Barnes shot Craft. Not one particle, nor a scrap of testimony has been adduced to connect in the remotest degree Barnes with the murder. Barnes is here not as a criminal, until he is shown to be guilty of some crime. They must show some union of intent between Barnes and Harlan, or one or both must go free. This is not a Court of last resort, but a hearing before a committing magistrate, to ascertain if a crime has been committed. Mr. Highton read many authorities, and made an eloquent address on the rights of defendants, the powers and duties of the District Attorney and committing magistrate in such cases.

The arguments lasted from 2 to 4 o'clock, when the Judge overruled the objection, and witness was asked to relate the remarks he had heard Frank Barnes make on the day following the homicide.

He said: "Mr. Barnes' daughter asked her father if there was no one present at the time of the homicide who tried to prevent the shooting. Frank Barnes replied, 'No; and if there had been they would have had me to contend with.'"

At 4:30 counsel for the prosecution said they would likely get all their testimony in by noon to-morrow, and the Court adjourned to 10 A. M.

KEEP MOVING.

But Be Ready to Fill the Vacancies as the Chinese Go.

[San Francisco Alta.]

The people of this State have determined to change their labor system to a white basis. It cannot be done in a day nor a year, but it must be done. The necessity for such change in vividly shown in the case of our fruit-growers, which we have heretofore stated. The fruit industry has grown up under Chinese labor. Our sparse rural population does not furnish the labor required in the orchards. That labor must be trained. Every orchardist knows that unskilled labor in his tree-tops will not only pick his year's crop, but at the same time destroy next year's crop also by destroying the buds from which it must issue. We invite the attention of the East to this fact to prove the complete domination of Chinese labor here. Here is an industry with an investment of $50,000,000 which finds itself unwillingly at the mercy of Chinese labor because white labor cannot be had, and to save itself from ruin and the State from great financial damage it is compelled to ask time in which to shift its labor to a white basis.

The Anti-Chinese League of Marysville has sounded the key-note of the situation, and there should be no letting down. That League declares that the purpose of this anti-Chinese movement is to get rid of that labor and to furnish labor and employment to whites as rapidly as is consistent with the best interests of employers and white employes. That means all there is in the situation. We must not let go. Having put our hands to the plow, we must not look back. We must not bring white labor here to set it tramping. The Marysville plan is full of the useful spirit of this whole movement, which intends to help rather than hurt the State. If we put into this movement the hectic features of a passing excitement, coerce right and left without reserve or discrimination, there will come a reaction which will greatly injure white labor and greatly discourage those who are intent upon securing a white foundation for the prosperity of California.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE NICOLAUS REFUGEES.

Forty-four of Them Arrive Here by the Steamer Knight, No. 2.

The Nicolaus Chinamen, an account of whose expulsion from that place is given in our telegraphic advices this morning, arrived here by the steamer Knight, No. 2 at 4 P. M. yesterday with their baggage, and marched to Chinatown, where their advent seemed to create a very depressed feeling among the residents. There were forty-four of them, laborers principally, and there are now but seven Mongolians left at Nicolaus, and they are business men, who were given fifteen days with which to close up their affairs and then "go." A committee, consisting of D. R. Redfield and E. Wesson, accompanied the expelled, and saw that they were provided with a good meal on the steamer. The residents of Nicolaus raised $125 to pay the fares of the Celestials to this city, but the Captain of the Knight would not accept it, as his steamer is not authorized to carry passengers. The Chinamen were not hurt to make them leave, but were given to understand that if they would go quietly and without trouble all right; if not—well, they must go. When they left the levee was lined with people cheering over their exit, and three cheers were given for Mr. Redfield, who had taken a prominent part in the movement.

Labor Question on the Grant.

EDS. RECORD-UNION: P. Andrews published a card in your paper a few days since. Permit me to correct his statements. He stated that Sullivan, Fisher and myself, who had been chopping wood on the Grant, left a bill unpaid of $77 30, due McMillan for provisions, when we were paid off, and that we skipped the country. I wish to say that this is absolutely untrue. I can prove by one hundred men that when we went to work at the job on the Grant, McMillan promised to pay us $2 75 per cord for all wood made from limbing and grubbing, and $1 50 per cord for wood cut from the stump. As a result of our work we put up 50 cords of wood from limbing and grubbing, and none of the other class. When we came to be paid off, we owed McMillan $77 30 for provisions he had furnished us while doing the work; and with that deducted from the $137 50 due us—50 cords at $2 75 per cord—there was overdue $60 20. We told Mr. Sullivan, the cashier upon the Grant, to keep the $77 30 for McMillan and pay us the balance—$60 20. McMillan, who was present, repudiated the contract for $2 75 per cord, and said it was to be but $1 50, an l, after considerable controversy, we were only paid $79 45 for the entire amount. This we received under protest. We had now received but $19 25 more than we were entitled to after McMillan's bill should have been paid, as shown above; and, as McMillan had wronged us out of the balance, we offered him the $19 25, and also our tent and tools, in settlement of his account against us. We made this offer three times, but he would not accept it. This is the whole matter, and the reason why the bill has not been paid. W. S. WILLIAMS.

Important to Freight Shippers.

C. A. Stevens, Freight Agent at Sacramento, yesterday received the following dispatch from General Freight Agent R. Gray, of the Southern Pacific Company, which is self-explanatory: "Referring to dispatches published to-day, to the effect that on account of strike at New Orleans orders would be given not to receive any more freight west-bound via Sunset route. This is an error. The Sunset route is receiving both east and west-bound freight, and forwarding same with accustomed promptness."

Since the above was written Mr. Stevens has received authoritative information that all issues with the brakemen have been adjusted, that the strike is at an end, and that the line will not be impeded in its business.

Police Court.

In the Police Court yesterday morning the case of Dr. A. Geismardo, accused of obtaining money by false pretenses from Richard Salter, was dismissed at the request of the prosecuting witness.

.....James Riley was convicted of petty larceny, and, there being a prior conviction against him, he was held to answer in $1,500 bail.....The case of Daniel Costello, for embezzlement, was continued until to-morrow morning.....John Tully, arrested for having been drunk, forfeited his deposit.....The cases of A. Berard and Geo. O. Bates, charged with misdemeanor in allowing soapsuds from a laundry at Twelfth and D streets to overflow the lot back of the laundry, went over until to-morrow.....Ten Chinamen, previously convicted of violating the cubic-air law, were fined $15 each.

PINK AND BLUE PARTY.—The Sacramento Turnschwestern-Verein—which may perhaps be freely translated to read "Turners' Sisters' Society"—gave an invitation pink and blue party at Turner Hall last evening, which was a very fine affair, and was managed by the young ladies with great ability. The attendance was large, nearly all were good dancers, and the floor was at all times well filled. Miss Lottie Bauer officiated as floor directress, and Misses Laura Krebs, Emma Meister, Emma Weber and Louise Hagelstein as the Floor Committee.

SPEED PROGRAMME.—The Speed Programme Committee of the Capital Turf Club has arranged a fine programme of races, aggregating $3,300 in purses for runners—four races for each of three days—and $1,600 for trotters and pacers. The trotting purses are $500 for the 2:25 class, $300 for the 2:40 class, and $400 for the 2:30 class. The pacing race is free for all, purse, $400. This programme is subject to approval by the club.

RATIFICATION MEETING.—At the Metropolitan Theater to-morrow evening there will be a public meeting to ratify the action taken by the recent Anti-Chinese Convention at San Jose. Hon. C. F. McGlashan, of Truckee, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Convention, will speak upon "The Duty of the Hour," and Mrs. Anderson, of Oakland, will also deliver an address. Seats will be reserved for ladies.

IS ACQUITTED ON THE CHARGE OF LARCENY.

She Prefers to Go With Her Husband Rather Than to the Home Mission.

At 1 P. M. yesterday the case of Fong Lin, the Chinawoman who ran away from her owner, but was brought back on a warrant accusing her of petit larceny, in stealing $23 75, was called in Justice Henley's Court. A large crowd of Chinamen had assembled about the building, and thronged the hall, but only a few of those more especially interested in the case were allowed inside the Court-room. There were a few white spectators present, including Rev. H. H. Rice and Mrs. Emma F. Wilder, a teacher at the Presbyterian Chinese Mission School. District Attorney Buckley and J. T. Carey appeared for the prosecution, and Henry Starr for the defense. The defendant seemed to be more composed than on the previous day, and was seated next to Ah Lee, her husband, who had his head shaved in honor of the occasion until all but the crown glistened like a billiard ball. His wife paid no attention to him, and she and her attorney did not appear to have a speaking acquaintance.

Judge Henley proceeded to business at once, and the prosecution commenced by placing Ah Fay, who swore out the warrant upon which the woman was arrested, on the stand. He testified that he lived on Third street, between I and J; works out; had known Fong Lin for four months; rented a room in his house to her; last Saturday night gathered together what money he had, amounting to $23 75, intending to go to San Francisco in the morning; put the money on a table near the bed, and about 10 o'clock went to bed; Fong Lin came into the room shortly afterwards, and talked a long time with his wife; don't know how late she stayed, but his wife awoke him when she was getting into bed, about 11:45; got up at 5:30 next morning and dressed to go to San Francisco; felt his pockets to see if his money and papers were all right; did not find any money, and then remembered placing it on the table; it was not there; asked his wife if she took it, and she said no; there had not been any one in the room the previous night, besides himself and wife, except Fong Lin and Tin Poy; asked Tin Poy next day if he took the money, and he said he did not; soon after missing the money, sent his wife to see Fong Lin; she was not in her room, the back door was open, and she had run away; got a warrant for her arrest; Tin Poy has gone back to Walnut Grove; he came to see witness' wife about some clothes she was making for him; Fong Lin slept that night with her husband, Ah Lee; they were married about four months ago by Chinese, and on Tuesday they were again married in Court; witness intended to go to San Francisco to make New Year's calls; having no more money, gave it up; there were other people in the house besides those mentioned, but not in the room that night; the room was not locked; don't lock his door, as it is a family house, and few came there.

Cross-examined by Mr. Starr—Witness stated that there were eight in the house altogether—four men and four women; they live there all the time; he leases the house and rents four rooms; three had occupants; Fong Lin came into the room first, and she and his wife were talking about the "Chinese must go," and he felt very sorry about it; she went out before his wife went to bed; Ah Lee was in his room next morning, after his wife—Fong Lin—had gone; when witness' wife knocked at Ah Lee's room, he said his wife was out making the fire; witness slept very soundly; his wife was a sound sleeper also, as she was very fat; examined his wife's clothes and she did not have the money; Fong Lin did not have any money when found; she came here from San Francisco four months ago, she and her husband, Ah Lee; times were dull at San Francisco, and witness advised them to come here and she could do sewing; she got work from tailor shops; her husband is a cook for families and works on ranches or anywhere; sleeps in his room in witness' house when in town; witness was positive that he himself did not buy Fong Lin; positive he has no claim upon her in the way of ownership; didn't get out the warrant just to catch and bring her back; really believed she stole the money; don't know she did, but she was in the room and he hadn't seen the money since.

Get Yow was sworn—Is the wife of Ah Fay; her husband says he left the money on the table, but she did not see any; saw him take off his clothes and hang them up before going to bed; Fong Lin came back with the policeman Monday night; she was not beaten nor whipped by any one after coming back.

Cross-examined—Fong Lin has been in the house ever since she came back; witness did not go out of her room after her husband went to bed; there was a light burning on the table all the time; didn't see any money; didn't pay any attention; the table was near the side of the bed; thought Fong Lin took the money because she ran away; did not hear anybody moving about the house before she got up in the morning; Fong Lin and her husband never fought; don't know why she ran away; witness' husband did not buy Fong Lin; their house is not a house of prostitution.

Ah Lee sworn—Is the husband of Fong Lin; was married to her over four months ago in San Francisco, Chinese fashion, but had no marriage papers, and some one ran away with his wife; thought they had better get married in Court, and they were two or three days ago.

Mr. Starr interposed an objection to the testimony of the witness, as he could not testify against his wife, and the objection was sustained.

Constable Swift was sworn and testified as to the facts of the arrest at a residence on N street, between Eighth and Ninth, about 1 o'clock Tuesday morning; she was concealed in a small room up stairs; did not examine to see whether she had any money; started to take her to the county jail, but they said they would give bonds, and she was taken before Judge Henley; no one examined to see if she had any money.

The prosecution announced the case closed on their side, and Mr. Starr moved for the discharge of the defendant, as no evidence had been obtained that would convict.

Mr. Carey reviewed the testimony, and thought it had been established that a theft had been committed, and that Fong Lin was the guilty party. Certainly the money had disappeared and she had run away, which was very strong presumptive proof. He referred to the strictures upon the case published in the papers, and suggested that it was not proper to consider the matter from a prejudicial standpoint of any kind—the present public sentiment against the Chinese, or from the reputation for falsifying and low social condition which the Chinese had. When the Chinese had a grievance, or it seemed that they had, their stories regarding it being apparently truthful, they were entitled to the remedy the law provides; they were entitled to justice under the law, now that they are here; the matter should be looked at coolly from a legal standpoint, and full protection afforded. He believed that the person who would not extend protection to them is lower than those seeking protection. In this instance a theft had been committed, the thief had run away, thus virtually admitting the theft, and the complainant was entitled to a warrant for the fugitive, and to have her tried and convicted. The public press should not be allowed to influence the matter, but the Court should consider it according to strict legal principles.

Judge Henley informed Colonel Starr that he need not argue the case. He was satisfied that, though circumstances cast a suspicion of guilt upon the defendant, there was not enough evidence to convict. The plaintiff's wife had not seen the money, though sitting in the room sewing near the table upon which a light was burning, and even if the guilt was narrowed down between the defendant and Tin Poy, there still would not be evidence enough to warrant her conviction. He would therefore order that the prisoner be discharged. The case had attracted considerable public attention, and been discussed in the newspapers. He would say that it was his invariable custom, when a criminal prosecution was commenced, to promptly notify either the City Attorney or the District Attorney, or both, directly after the papers were issued, that they might take cognizance of the matter; and frequently refused to issue the paper, when a warrant was applied for in the daytime, until one or other of those gentlemen gave his sanction. On this occasion the application for a warrant was made at a late hour of the night, after he had gone to bed; the parties came accompanied by a reputable attorney, whom he had long known and for whom he had great respect, the case seemed a proper one, and he issued the warrant more especially because it was asserted that the defendant was going to leave the city by the morning train. To have refused the warrant under such circumstances might have been great injustice.

After the prisoner had been ordered discharged, District Attorney Buckley requested the Court to have her detained apart from the other Chinese for a few minutes, as he desired to speak with her. The Chinamen were excluded, and then the District Attorney, on behalf of Rev. Mr. Rice and Mrs. Wilder, informed her through an interpreter concerning the Presbyterian Mission Home at San Francisco, of the large number of Chinese women now being cared for there, and desired to know whether she would like to be removed from her present surroundings and become an inmate of the Home. She responded that she was now married to her husband, he had promised to treat her well, and she would rather stay with him. He was then called in, took her hand, and they left for home, she looking rather grave and he jubilant.

BRIEF NOTES.

Ten carloads of oranges went East yesterday.

The State Library will be open to-day and to-morrow from 9 A. M. to 10 P. M., for the accommodation of members of the G. A. R. and other visitors.

Officer Franks arrested last evening Viet Heidtly, an ex-convict, who had in his possession a No. 3 hand-ax, supposed to have been purloined. Owner wanted.

The Knights of Pythias of this city will give their annual complimentary entertainment and ball, in honor of the twenty-third Pythian period, at Armory Hall this evening.

James Colby, a pressman employed at Goode Bros.' printing office, had his left hand caught in the machinery of a press yesterday morning, and two fingers were badly mutilated.

The employment office of the Citizens' Anti-Chinese Association has been removed to the bookstore at 807 K street. There are on the rolls over forty women and girls who desire employment.

Edmund J. Dalley, of Sacramento, was arraigned in the United States District Court, San Francisco, Wednesday, for stealing a cameo ring from a mail package. He pleaded not guilty. His trial was not set.

Deputy Sheriff Wilson brought up from San Francisco last evening, en route to the State Prison at Folsom, William Smith, who is to serve a term of life imprisonment for stage robbery; and Charles Bush, eight years, for burglary with prior conviction.

Owing to the bursting of the transcontinental railroad pool, a grand cutting of passenger rates has been inaugurated. Yesterday first-class passage to Omaha was reduced to $50, from $84, and second-class to $25, from $47 50. First-class fare to Chicago is $92 50.

Chief Jackson and T. J. Loftus, who were summoned to San Francisco as witnesses in the case of F. Foster, charged with falsely personating a Government detective, returned from the Bay last evening, and report that, in consequence of some error, the case will have to be acted upon again by the United States Grand Jury.

The horse attached to A. & A. Heilbron's wagon ran away on Seventh street, between J and K, yesterday forenoon and turned in upon the sidewalk in front of Pioneer Hall. The jolt threw the driver down upon the whiffletree, and if the horse had not just then collided with a post and stopped the young man would probably have been badly hurt. A shaft of the wagon was broken.

In Justice Post's Court yesterday J. R. Smith was convicted of battery upon Miss Mayo, a daughter of Eli Mayo, and was fined $25. The parties are distantly related. Miss Mayo believed Smith was the author of certain anonymous letters, and, meeting him at Tenth and K streets on Tuesday, she accused him of it. They got excited and exchanged slaps, but the Court deemed Smith the aggressor.

Yee Sin, who kept a laundry at Eighth and M streets, and his men have not appeared at the place for about ten days, and, as a considerable portion of their utensils have been removed, it is presumed that the establishment has "failed." They left behind a considerable quantity of wearing apparel, etc., washed and ironed, most of which has been claimed by owners. It is singular that this washing was not delivered and pay therefor collected.

Uncleanly prisoners taken to the county jail are subjected to a thorough washing before being put in the cells. Yesterday ten Chinamen were taken there from the Police Court for violating the cubic-air law, under sentence of fifteen days each. Their attorney declared his intention of getting them out immediately on habeas corpus, and Jailer Fuller hesitated about washing the entire band if they were not going to be regular boarders; but, as neither of the Superior Judges were in town, and consequently no writ could be obtained, he had to put them in the bath-tub.

A Drummer's Misconduct.

On the 5th instant Paul Bloomingthall, a San Francisco drummer, hired from A. S. Peterson of that city a horse and buggy, stating that he was going to canvass in the adjoining counties, and would be gone a week or ten days. About the time that he should return, if working according to programme, Mr. Peterson heard something which led him to believe that all was not right, and he concluded to investigate. As a result he learned that Bloomingthall had come to Sacramento, instead of visiting the country near San Francisco, and had sold the horse and buggy to H. H. King, of this city. Mr. Peterson came to Sacramento, and last evening went to see Mr. King at his residence, Twenty-sixth and N streets, accompanied by officer Ash, and found that he had been correctly informed as to the property having been sold, Mr. King having bought it and received a bill of sale on the 8th inst., three days after Bloomingthall hired the turnout. The price was $150, of which sum he paid down $125, giving his note for the balance. Mr. King is a hardworking man, who is fixing up a comfortable little home, and he can ill afford to lose the money. The drummer is thought to have taken his departure for the East. He owed Peterson a livery bill of $44 prior to his last patronage.

Official Visit and Banquet.

Fidelity Grove, No. 31, U. A. O. D., received an official visit last evening from the Grand Officers and others, including Louis F. Dunnand, N. G. A.; Henry R. Morton, D. G. A.; F. H. Classen, P. A.; E. A. Janjon, P. A.; also J. S. Loventhal, C. H. Abbott and W. H. Arment, of Modesto. Walhalla Grove, No. 6, also attended in a body. After the business of the evening had been concluded, and interesting addresses by the Grand Officers listened to, on the subject of the good of the order, the entire party adjourned to Fisher's Restaurant, where a very fine banquet, comprising everything that could be desired, was served by Mr. Haub, the proprietor. When it had received due attention, toasts were in order, and responses were made by Grand Officers Dunnand and Morton, Judge W. A. Henry, M. Hirsch, H. Glassen, A. Trope, N. Malatesta, A. Gonnet, L. Goldstein, L. Neubourg and E. Q. Naghel. The Grand Officers will leave for Woodland this morning, to institute a new Grove there this evening, and Messrs. Hirsch, Goldstein, Malatesta, Gonnet and Stein will accompany them.

A fine lunch will be served from 11 A. M. to 2:30 P. M., and supper from 5 to 7:30 P. M. There will be a very interesting entertainment in the evening, with music by the best local talent. Speeches will be delivered by Colonels Goulding and Babcock, of San Francisco, Rev. E. R. Dille and other leading Grand Army men. Grand Army visitors are especially invited. Tickets, 25 cents.

METROPOLITAN THEATER.—A matinee will be given at the Metropolitan to-morrow afternoon by Sheridan & Cain's specialty company, which will include a pleasing variety entertainment, a prominent feature of which will be the performance of Holtum, "the king of the cannon," who, among other feats, will catch a twenty-pound ball fired from the gun. The entertainment will conclude with the laughable comedy, "Peck's Bad Boy."

ORANGE AND LEMON TREES.—We have a large lot of the finest trees for sale at our yard on Second street, near Passenger Depot, and at Branch Yard, I street, near Seventh. W. R. Strong & Co.

Mrs. Lewis' Concert.

Mrs. Fleissner-Lewis' concert at the Congregational Church last night drew a fair audience. The programme was varied and interesting. The programme was not calculated to awaken much enthusiasm, and was therefore not demonstratively received. But Mrs. Lewis was complimented by sincere encores, as also was Miss Gertie Carley and Miss Louisa Kaibel. The first, a pupil of Mrs. Lewis, is a young girl, but has a surprisingly sweet and sympathetic voice that is full of promise. She possesses the chief essential of a singer—power of expression, absence of consciousness of her effort; she evidently feels what she sings, and this quality is a rare one. Miss Kaibel is a violinist of decided merit. Her bowing is admirable. For so young a person she plays with accuracy, and her selections were clearly marked by feeling and were thus truly expressive. Mrs. Lewis sang with her usual excellence. Professor Fleissner gave three organ solos, the offertoire and improvisation being fine examples and marking the programme as gems. Miss G. Gerrish gave a piano solo of difficult character, in a manner testifying to excellence of execution and ability. Mr. G. Rau, a new baritone, sang twice. He has a good voice, but is unused to the concert stage, and muffles his tones. Experience will teach him the necessity of the open mouth in singing. His voice is of too good a quality to be buried in the throat. Miss Hermina Fleissner played a piano solo acceptably, her execution being especially good. The floral tributes to the ladies were many and very rich. A general criticism of the concert would be just that there was too little warmth and a lack of expression, except in the instances named.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY EXERCISES.—The pupils of the Capital Grammar School, Professor Johnson, Principal, will have interesting exercises at 1 P. M. to-day in honor of the anniversary of the Father of his Country. Alvord, Jessie Davis, Alfred Worthington, Harry Sullivan, Walter Cunningham, Ida Desmond.

Baker, by officers Kent and Farrell, on two charges of battery, one preferred by Miss E. V. Pockman and the other by J. H. Wills; Louisa Malagee, by officer Rider, for battery upon Augustine Morin; D. P. Rich, by local officer Townsend, for being drunk; Mrs. Lower, by officer Franks, for disturbing the peace.

Stylish Gowns of Black.

It would be strange, indeed, if with fancy running riot for several seasons in the creation of designs and colorings for woolen dress fabrics, if some change was not visible in black stuffs. The time is within easy remembrance when cashmere was quite the universal fabric in black goods, and though it still holds, and deservedly, too, much of its original popularity, still it is being forced constantly to divide honors with new rivals for feminine favor.

One result of the strife thus far has been to dispel the illusion that black costumes are necessarily somber. The truth is there's so much life and brilliancy thrown nowadays into the finish of the various twills and figures, that many fashionables, tired of gaudy colors, are replenishing their wardrobes with gowns of artistic black.

Perhaps this is not to be wondered at. It's characteristic of Fashion to jump from one extreme to another.

One thing that perhaps has helped black always is the higher taste and skill displayed in dressmaking. The days of haphazard and bungling draperies are happily passing away, and instead absolute perfection of fit, careful and artistic arrangement of folds and drapings are exacted of every modiste. Nothing sets off these virtues in a costume better than black—which suits itself to all figures and complexions.

The splendid stock of Black Goods which we carry includes all the novelties and celebrated weaves now in market. There are Silk-warp Drap d'Almas and Henriettas at $1 50, $1 75 and $2. Ottoman, Velour and Crape effects at $1 25. Black Jersey, Bearitte and Plain Sateen Woolen Stuffs at $1. Stylish Basket Plaids, $1 25. An extra good Cashmere (1¼ yards wide), at $1, with hosts of others at higher and lower prices.

Black Silks are important enough to speak of separately another day.

DOMESTIC.

John B. Gough Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, February 18th.—John B. Gough, the eloquent temperance lecturer, died at 4:40 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Dr. R. Bruce, in Frankford, where he was taken on Monday night when stricken with paralysis while lecturing at the Frankford Presbyterian Church. His wife was at his bedside when he died. There were also present Mrs. Pidge, his sister; Mrs. Burns and two nieces, Misses Mary and Fanny Whitcomb, Mrs. John Wannamaker, Rev. Thomas Murphy and Mrs. Jacob Wagner. It was recalled to-day that the last words spoken by Mr. Gough were: "Young man, make your record clean."

[At 5 o'clock yesterday there died one of the remarkable men of the day. John B. Gough was born at Sandgate, Kent, England, on the 22d of August, 1817. He attended a private school, but at the age of 10 left it, and never enjoyed any other school advantages. Unable to secure his son the opportunity to learn a trade, his father, who was a poor man, sent him at the age of 12 to America to be apprenticed. He was placed on a farm in Oneida county, New York, where he remained two years. Being convinced that agricultural pursuits were ill suited to him, he had his father's consent to go to New York city, where he arrived with four shillings as all his worldly store. He apprenticed himself to a bookbinder, but his master was a grinding man, and the relation was speedily dissolved and a new situation found at $3 a week. He sent to England for his mother and sister, and they joined him in 1833. They lived in a garret in a condition of poverty. He lost his position and was driven to beg for food. The mother soon died in the garret, and was buried as a pauper. The lad struggled on alone with ill success. Possessed of a fine voice and remarkable imitative powers he attracted attention, and secured employment in a cheap theater, and worked a little at his trade. He fell into bad habits, and from having been a devout Christian descended to vice and dissipation, and eked out existence in low amusement halls as an actor. He became a confirmed drunkard apparently. During a temporary reform he married, and removed to Newburyport. He soon returned to his cups, and sank to the low levels of the drunkard again. He became the veriest slave of the bottle. His social qualities and amiable disposition won him friends, who did their utmost to reclaim him. His wife left him repeatedly, and endeavored by as frequent returns to rescue him, but his habits grew no better. His wife went into decline and died, and Gough sank lower still when her influence was withdrawn. One night in October, 1847, a stranger tapped him on the shoulder as he staggered in the street, and asked him to "sign the pledge," and promised him aid if he would do so. He resolved to accept the offer, went on a final debauch, and then signed. Delirium tremens seized upon him almost immediately, and the description of his experience with mania a potu formed one of the most startling portions of nearly all his marvelously eloquent lectures for forty years thereafter. Friends rallied to his support. He procured employment at his trade and began to prosper. He was brought out as "a reclaimed drunkard" at temperance meetings by the "Washingtonians," and began to make speeches. The spirit of oratory was in him, the fire of earnestness and the truth of convictions. It was but a short time until he was permanently upon the lecture rostrum. Twice only did he violate his pledge, but he was saved from appetite by strong supporting wills. Mr. Gough's career since that year 1842 is one familiar to the American public. He became the most brilliant and dramatically effective temperance orator ever upon the American platform. Wherever he went the people flocked to him. His power over an audience was something wonderful. He enchained not only the intelligence by the melody of his tongue and the grace of his delivery, but he touched the heart and won the sympathies. No one who ever heard him doubted his sincerity or denied the magnetism of his oratory. He was called to every part of the Union. In the first year of his work he delivered no less than 383 addresses, and received from 75 cents to $6 a lecture. It is estimated that Gough delivered no less than 8,400 lectures on the topic of total abstinence and prohibition, and that over two millions of people signed the pledge at his instance. He was invited to England, and warmly welcomed there in 1853, a public reception of a phenomenal character being given him. The first men of England came forward to do him honor and acknowledge his power. He lectured throughout England and Scotland, arousing the greatest enthusiasm on all sides. In 1856 he returned to England in response to demands of the people, and remained there three years, lecturing constantly. From 1859 to 1880 he lectured with less frequency, but never wholly ceased, even when age began to cripple his powers. He was married the second time in 1843, wedding Miss Mary Whitcomb, of Boylston, Mass., and this lady, in all his subsequent career, was a powerful helper in his work. Mr. Gough never acquired wealth. He had a comfortable home, a fair income and a fine library. In narrative he had no equals; his descriptive powers were wonderfully vivid and strong; in pathos he surpassed Gavazzi, but had not his tragic grandeur. On the platform he was restless, tossing, acting, every limb and muscle and feature playing a part in his wonderful "expression." He was exceedingly witty, and his readiness in repartee was one of his chief weapons to success. There was nothing of the declamatory in his style—it was natural, unconscious eloquence, remless, dashing, stormy, yet at times terrible in its peculiar placidity, and beyond description moving in its pathos, and bewildering in the beauty of its imagery.—EDS. RECORD-UNION.]

Railroad Matters.

NEW YORK, February 18th.—The Union and Central Pacific roads' reduction in passenger fares of 50 per cent. between San Francisco and Omaha will be followed almost immediately by a reduction in freight rates. All lines west of the Missouri river are making a like competition for business, the amount of which is no heavier than last year, when full tariff rates prevailed.

The Central and Southern Pacific people take the dissolution of the pool philosophically. C. P. Huntington states the case thus: "I don't look for any more travel than there has been under the pool. There was cutting then, and there will be cutting now. Naturally it would be expected that we should discontinue the Pacific Mail subsidy. We are, and have been all along, in favor of low rates. We believe in getting people to California, to settle the country. At our meetings we all agreed, except the Atchison, which wanted more than it earned, or was able to earn. It earned 22 per cent. and wanted 40 per cent. We objected. None of us feel particularly friendly to the Atchison. How long the cutting will go on it is impossible to say."

DENVER (Col.), February 18th.—On account of the failure of the Transcontinental Railway Association to agree upon terms of the pool, the Santa Fe, Union Pacific, and Denver and Rio Grande companies to-day announced a cut of $20 on emigrant rates, and $18 each on first-class unlimited and limited tickets to the Pacific coast.

The Brakemen's Strike.

HOUSTON (Tex.), February 18th.—The freight traffic on the Southern Pacific Railroad between here and New Orleans is entirely suspended, owing to the brakemen's strike. A committee of two brakemen left New Orleans last night, to inquire into grievances of the men on the Morgan [illegible]sion. The men here say they have no [illegible]ance of their own. The local agents [illegible] Southern Pacific Company to-day [illegible]arged sixteen freight-handlers and [illegible] clerks, because of the suspension of [illegible]. It is understood that agents all [illegible] line as far as El Paso have been [illegible] do likewise.

[illegible]CESSION TO THE STRIKERS.

[illegible]RK, February 19th—A. M.—The [illegible] C. P. Huntington made an im[illegible]sion yesterday. He determined [illegible] the troubles among his em[illegible] Southern Pacific, Louisiana [illegible] Morgan Steamship Company. [illegible] explicit orders to his New [illegible]gers to comply without any [illegible] demands of the striking [illegible] This is important and signifi[illegible]ing on the railway warfare. Match for a Running Race.

NEW YORK, February 18th.—Athletic circles are excited over the acceptance by L. E. Myers, the champion mile-runner of America, of W. G. George's challenge to run a series of races for a large purse. George is the English champion, and in 1882 defeated Myers in two out of three races. Myers has won a number of prizes. They are numbered by hundreds, and his record of winning thirty championship races in America and England has never been approached here. He is the pride of all interested in athletic sports, and abroad he was so well appreciated that the English athletes bestowed on him the title of "The American Phenomenon."

Two-thirds Exaggeration.

OCALA (Fla.), February 18th.—The accounts published of the effects of the late frosts in this State are 75 per cent. exaggerated. Instead of having been killed, the bearing orange trees are even now in bloom, and the prospects for the coming crop are as favorable as any other year.

FOREIGN NEWS.

English Political Affairs.

LONDON, February 18th.—Great uncertainty exists throughout all parties concerning domestic matters. All signs confirm the anticipation of the introduction of a home rule resolution, rather than a detailed bill, which would give opportunity for endless disputes. Parnell's motion about the distress in Ireland will doubtless suggest the appropriation of part of the remaining church fund for relief purposes. It is Parnell's inflexible determination that nothing shall precede the home rule decision in one form or another; also, that all rumors of the resignation of Biggar or Healy, and the danger of a split in the Irish party may be disregarded. Externally, at least, the greatest unity exists.

Parliament Opened.

LONDON, February 18th.—Parliament reassembled to-day. Gladstone stated in the Commons that after the Government had concluded the financial business they had to place before the House they would be able to state part, if not the whole, of the Irish measures they intended to introduce. He expected, he said, to be through the financial business about the 2d of March. Gladstone announced, further, that the Government had no intention of renewing coercion in Ireland.

In the Lords, Granville, Secretary of State for the Colonies, announced that the Government would not introduce any Irish measures into Parliament before the 1st of March.

Alluding to the foreign policy of the new Government in the Commons, Gladstone said he would follow the Eastern policy inaugurated by Salisbury.

Resignation Recalled.

BUCHAREST, February 18th.—M. Bratiano, Prime Minister and Minister of the Interior and of Foreign Affairs, has withdrawn his resignation, tendered yesterday.

Recruiting Prohibited.

VIENNA, February 18th.—The project of recruiting the Hungarian Legion for service in the Servian Army has been prohibited, and the Government has also forbidden the exportation of horses from Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Jewish Brigands Condemned.

ODESSA, February 18th.—The military tribunal at Keshner, the capital of Bessarabia, has just condemned six Jewish brigands—three to fifteen years' imprisonment and the others to death—for having robbed a priest and then offered armed resistance to the police who arrested them.

Should Remain There.

LONDON, February 18th.—Mrs. Crawford, respondent in the Crawford-Dilke scandal case, has gone into seclusion in Italy.

Row Among Sailors.

LONDON, February 18th.—A riot occurred at Bristol to-day between British and foreign sailors, growing out of jealousy. The captain of the steamer Jersey City, who had been attending the Marine Board, in order to ship a crew of foreigners, was followed and hooted by a crowd of unemployed seamen. The foreigners became alarmed and fled, the English pursuing and assaulting them. The riot was finally quelled by the police. The Jersey City is without a crew, and is unable to sail.

Fire on Shipboard.

CALCUTTA, February 18th.—A fire has broken out on the British bark J. W. Parker. The vessel is loaded and ready to sail for New York. The flames have not yet been extinguished.

Serious Affray Over a Game of Football.

DUBLIN, February 18th.—At Kings, county Cavan, to-day, a dispute during a game of football resulted in an affray, in which billhooks and pitchforks were freely used. Twenty persons were wounded, and one of them is believed to be dying.

These lands are all farming and grazing lands in Dakota."

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

CONDEMNATORY RESOLUTIONS ON GARLAND.

The California Marshalship—Congressional Proceedings—The Fitz John Porter Bill Passed.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

United States Senate.

WASHINGTON, February 18th.—Among the petitions presented in the Senate and appropriately reported was one by Hoar from "citizens of the United States"—citizens whose names, Hoar said, seem to indicate that they were foreign born—praying for the submission by Congress to the several States of a constitutional amendment abolishing the Presidency.

On motion of Maxey, a bill was passed to grant the right of way for railroads and telegraph lines through the lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations to the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad Company.

The education bill was then taken up.

Plumb offered an amendment to it, providing as to Territories, that not the Secretary of the Interior but the Legislatures of the several Territories shall have the administration of the money. Agreed to.

A discussion followed on the bill itself, and without final action the Senate went into executive session, and soon after adjourned.

House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, February 18th.—Crisp, from the Committee on Pacific Railroads, reported the bill amending the Pacific Railroads Acts, so as to compel the railroads to pay to the United States the amounts paid out by it for surveying lands to which they are entitled. House calendar.

In the morning hour the House resumed consideration of the bill forfeiting the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad land grants.

The bill was discussed without any result being reached until the expiration of the morning hour, and then the House went into Committee of the Whole (Springer of Illinois in the chair) on the Fitz John Porter bill.

After a somewhat extended and heated debate the bill passed—ayes 171, noes 113.

The House then adjourned.

The California Marshalship Again.

WASHINGTON, February 18th.—When the nomination of U. S. Marshalship for California was sent in to the Senate last week, the name given was "Christopher Franks." Since then the President has ascertained that Mr. Franks' Christian name was not Christopher, and to-day he sent in a corrected nomination, the name being John Cristian Franks. An effort is being made to have an exception made in the case of Marshal Franks, and not have his nomination buried with the others under the operation of the decision of the Republican caucus. Senator Edmunds has already been seen in this regard, and another interview on the subject will be had with him to-morrow.

A Petition One Hundred and Thirty-six Feet Long.

WASHINGTON, February 18th.—Representative Felton has received a petition, signed by 3,000 citizens of the Fifth California District, urging the abrogation of the Burlingame treaty and all other treaties admitting Chinese into this country. The petition is 136 feet long, and when presented in the house to-morrow it will probably cause a sensation.

The Senate Judiciary Committee and Attorney-General Garland.

WASHINGTON, February 18th.—Senator Edmunds to-day reported the following resolutions from the Senate Committee on Judiciary, accompanied by a long report:

Resolved, That the Senate hereby expresses its condemnation of the refusal of the Attorney-General, acting under whatever influence, to send to the Senate copies of papers called for by its resolution of the 25th of January, and set forth in reports of the Committee on Judiciary, as in violation of his official duties and subversive of the fundamental principles of the Government and of the good administration thereof.

Resolved, That it is, under these circumstances, the duty of the Senate to refuse its advice and consent to the proposed removal of officers—documents and papers in reference to the supposed official or personal misconduct of whom are withheld by the Executive or any head of the Department, when deemed necessary by the Senate and called for in considering the matter.

Resolved, That the provisions of Section 1754 of the Revised Statutes, declaring "That persons honorably discharged from the military and naval service, by reason of disability resulting from wounds or sickness incurred in the line of duty, shall be preferred for appointments to civil offices; provided that they are found to possess the business capacity necessary for a proper discharge of the duties of such office," ought to be lawfully put into execution, and that to remove, or propose to remove, any such soldier, whose faithfulness, competency and character are above reproach, and to give place to another who has not rendered such services, is in violation of the spirit of the law and of the practical gratitude the people and the Government of the United States owe to the defenders of constitutional liberty and integrity of the Government. All of which is respectfully submitted.

(Signed) GEORGE F. EDMUNDS, JOHN J. INGALLS, S. J. R. MCMILLAN, GEORGE F. HOAR, JAMES F. WILSON, WILLIAM M. EVARTS.

The Fitz John Porter Bill.

WASHINGTON, February 18th.—The Fitz John Porter bill passed the House this afternoon by a vote of 171 to 113. This result was expected, and it is hardly possible that the speeches that have been made during the past week have influenced a dozen votes. The vote was not drawn upon party lines, though there was only one Democrat who is recorded in the negative, while 16 Republicans voted in favor of the bill.

Senate Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, February 18th.—The Senate, in Executive session, to-day confirmed the following nominations: Lewis L. McArthur, of Oregon, to be Attorney of the United States for the District of Oregon. Postmasters—F. P. Thompson, Eureka, Cal.; Frank M. Jackson, Los Gatos, Cal.

Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, February 18th.—The President sent the following nomination to the Senate to-day: John Christian Franks, of California, to be United States Marshal for California.

The action of the Assistant Treasurer at New York, in refusing to accept deposits of silver until he is able to count them, is in strict accordance with instructions issued by the United States Treasurer.

Senator Jones of Nevada, who has been accused of favoring the confirmation of Collector Chase of Maine, and Pillsbury of Massachusetts, and who held the balance of power in regard to these nominations in the Senate Finance Committee, has reported them adversely to the Senate, and they will be rejected.

A petition will be presented to the Senate to-morrow by Stanford, signed by Mayor Bartlett, George Wilson, Stuart M. Taylor, Postmaster Backus and others at San Francisco, praying that Maurice Connell, of the Signal Office, be placed on the retired list of the army, with the rank of Second Lieutenant, for services in the Greely expedition.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKET.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 18th.

FLOUR—Moderate trading on local account. We quote: Best city extra, $4 25@4 75; medium, $3 50@4; shipping superfine, $2 75@3 75 ⅌ bbl.

WHEAT—There is no change in the situation. Good No. 1 quality is in quick demand at $1 26¼, while lots that can be immediately delivered would probably bring $1 27½. For better qualities $1 28¾ can be obtained.

Valparaiso dates of December 4th says: "The growing wheat crops continue in excellent condition, and harvesting has commenced in some parts of the country. The yield is expected to be above an average, but meantime shippers manifest no desire to charter."

Call Board sales at the morning session of the San Francisco Produce Exchange were as follows:

Buyer season—200 tons, $1 29¼; 700, $1 29⅛; 500, $1 29⅛; 100, $1 29¾; 400, $1 30; 500, $1 30⅛; 600, $1 30¼.

Seller 1886—500 tons, $1 20½; 1,100, $1 20¼; 100, $1 20⅛ ⅌ ctl.

BARLEY—The market wears an easy tone. Some holders cling to $1 32½ ⅌ ctl as their selling figure for choice feed, but buyers can secure a good article within the range of $1 27½@1 30 ⅌ ctl, and business generally is negotiated on these prices. Brewing qualities are steady at old quotations, say $1 40@1 50 ⅌ ctl.

Call Board sales at the morning session of the San Francisco Produce Exchange were as follows:

Buyer 1886—100 tons, $1 24.

Seller season—100 tons, $1 21 ⅌ ctl.

Seller 1886—100 tons, 85c ⅌ ctl.

OATS—More arrivals to-day from Oregon and also from Washington Territory. These accessions did not unsettle the market, apparently, though preventing any appreciation in values. We quote: Surprise and milling, $1 35@1 40; No. 1, $1 22½@1 25; common grades, $1 17½@1 20 ⅌ ctl.

CORN—No round lots of California Large Yellow on the market. There may be a few stray parcels in the hands of dealers, but they would not be parted with, if at all of choice quality, except in jobbing fashion at high figures, say $1 20 to $1 25 ⅌ ctl. We quote as follows: Small Yellow, $1 20@1 25; large White, $1 15@1 20; small White, $1 17½@1 20 ⅌ ctl; Nebraska, $1@1 02½ ⅌ ctl.

FRUIT—Oranges of poor quality are still freely offered at 75c@$1 ⅌ box. Mexican Limes are nearly exhausted, and dealers are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the next Panama steamer for replenishing their stock. We quote: Oranges, California, $1 25@2 ⅌ box for common and $2@4 ⅌ box for Navel; Apples, 60c@$1 for common and $1 25@1 50 ⅌ box for good to choice; Mexican Limes, $12@13; do California, $1 50@2 ⅌ small box, and $3 50@4 for large boxes; Lemons, Sicily, $6@6 50; do, California, $1@3 ⅌ box, according to quality; Bananas, $1 50@3 ⅌ bunch; Pineapples, $3 50@5 ⅌ dozen; Cranberries, $7@8 for Wisconsin, and $10@11 ⅌ bbl for Cape Cod.

The Wonderful Cures that are Effected by Dr. Geismardo.—Dr. A. Geismardo, of the Paris University, now a resident of this city at 317 Stockton street, is perhaps one of the most remarkable electricians and magnetic healers of the day. At the age of 12 he discovered his wonderful electrical powers, and began the study of medicine. At 21 he entered the French army as surgeon and was placed in charge of a hospital, but soon afterward abandoned the profession of medicine and entered upon his new career of usefulness as an electric and magnetic healer. After making a tour of Europe he went to Mexico, and received from the highest officials of that country many testimonials of his cures. Entering the Government service as a surgeon, he used his powers both on the soldiers and the public, and in gratitude thereof was awarded the Captainship in the National Guard, and also the gold cross of the Legion of Honor. Hearing of the remarkable cures that the Doctor had effected during his short stay in this city, a Call reporter visited his office at 317 Stockton street, corner of Sutter, to satisfy himself as to the genuineness of the mysterious nature of his powers. Dr. Geismardo is a Frenchman by birth. He speaks English like an Englishman, and is also master of German, Italian and Spanish, and is as polished a man of the world as a student of the art of healing. He is young and still in his thirties. Taking advantage of his offer, the reporter accompanied him in his professional visits. The first patient seen was C. Sneider, who had been for six months so great a sufferer that he was incapacitated from work. After six visits Mr. Sneider was enabled to attend to his duties.

One of the most remarkable cures was that effected upon Mr. Chatien, who for eight years had been a victim of chronic rheumatism, so that he was unable to walk. He first visited last Wednesday, and when seen Friday afternoon, his last treatment, he was not only walking, but was strong enough to perform the hardest labor. D. B. Kimball, who, for the past two years, has had rheumatism and inflammation of the nerves so badly that he was a paralytic till last Monday, and could hardly hobble along with crutches and stick, was first visited last Monday, and after the second treatment could walk without any extraneous aid. All these three patients have employed the leading physicians of San Francisco, and have expended thousands of dollars on them, without avail. As Mr. Kimball said to the reporter: "I have indeed found a god in this man—a man who has given me a new life—and the blessing he has bestowed upon me I would not part with for many thousand dollars."

The last patients seen were Mrs. Sylvia and Mrs. Shawhan, the one troubled with her voice and the other with her foot, which had prevented her from walking for the last six months. Two visits cured the infirmities.

Dr. Geismardo uses neither drug, lotion nor plaster. His cures are effected solely through his own electric exertions and bottled electricity. It is his own invention, which he labored over for fifteen years. ja30-4plm

The Doctor will agree to forfeit $1,000 for a case undertaken not cured. The reason so many cannot get cured of Weakness and the above diseases is owing to complication called PROSTATORRHEA with Hyperæsthesia, which requires special treatment.

Qualified and Responsible.—Dr. Liebig & Co. from EUROPE are regular college educated physicians, and are now in their nineteenth year of special practice.
